Fare will be one fare plus $2.00 for round trip. Write your folks in the East and have them come and see you, taking advantage of these rates. Tickets limited 21 days with 15 days limit on going portion.

F. AVERY, Agt.

Sheriff Holly, who has been under the weather during the past week, is again on the mend.

Will Davis, is completing building a country home out on his claim just outside of town.

There is to be a special term of court held at Harrison next month. Judge Westover will preside.

Hon. Andrew Christian and his brother Chris of Kirtly, were in town the first of the week, on business.

Assessor Tietze is busy these days. No you can't escape him he will find you, give him a cordial reception.

We understand Chas. Kalstrom, of Glen, was among those who left for Alberta, N. W. T. the first of the week.

On last Thursday, John Davis, moved his family out to his suburban home, where they expect to reside permanently.

W. L. Farley, who came down from Casper last week for a few days visit among friends, returned to his home the first of the week.

Mrs. W. H. Bonsell, and children, who have been guests at the Hester mansion during the past week or two, returned to Lusk, last Saturday.

There will be a dance at Harrison May 15th. Good music will be furnished. Come and have a good time.

BORN—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wright on last Friday, a son. All parties concerned are o. k. and Frank is quite jubilant over the arrival of another couch puncher at his home.

Mrs. Nelson, Sr., mother of Dedrick and Peter Nelson, of Glen, who has been quite sick during the past several weeks continues to grow weaker presumably her sickness is incidental to old age.

Grandma Davis, returned to Harrison last Saturday, after an extended visit in Minnesota, and other points. Grandma has a host of friends here, who will be glad to hear of her return.

Marcus Valdez, went to Wyoming, on last Monday, to take charge of Jake Mills large ranch, he took John Plunkett and Henry Moravak with him and they expect to work for him all summer.

Mrs. Hunt, of Ixra, Ia., arrived here on last Saturday noon, and was taken to Ple's nt Ridge, in the afternoon, by Mr. Deickman. The lady has come for the purpose of teaching one of the schools at the Ridge.

Chas. Beihle, will contribute enough ground just outside of town, for a catholic cemetery, and it is to be consecrated and fenced during the summer, this will be of special interest to our catholic readers.

Yesterday Chas. Beihle took his father and mother, and two of his boys, over to his Antelope ranch, where the boys will look after the cattle during the summer, and Grandma and Grandpa will look after the boys.

We acknowledge a very pleasant call from Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Knott, this week. It is the first time we have had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. K. and we are very sorry to learn that the lady anticipates leaving Sioux County so soon for we cannot spare our worthy citizens.

M. J. Blawett, Monday was made special deputy sheriff for the purpose of collecting some personal taxes due the county from several parties down in the east end, who were billed to start for Alberta, North-west Territory Tuesday, without making provision to intercept them.

Strayed.

Strayed from White River, four miles west of Glen, one bay "Pinto" Mare, bald faced, white legs and branded on left shoulder.

Any one giving me information of her whereabouts will be liberally rewarded by writing to me.

EZRA TUCKER, Glen, Neb.

Stamp pictures, at the gallery.
Are we going to have memorial services here this year?

Have your picture put in one of those gold frames at the gallery.

Nellie Thornton, has been quite indisposed this week, but is now better.

Mary Moravak, expects to go to Lusk, today to work for the summer.

John Fitzgerald and family of Flat creek, Wyo., spent a day or two in town this week on business.

Mrs. James Johnson, mother of Frank Johnson, of this place is seriously ill with stomach trouble.

A. E. Gates of Ft. Robinson, was in town yesterday doing business and shaking hands with old acquaintances.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet at the Church, Wednesday afternoon, May 9th, to finish Society quilt.

W. H. Bonsell, of Lusk, and S. E. Eldridge, of Hat Creek, Wyo., were in town a day or two the first of this week on business.

Charley Grewell, of Hewitt, this county, was in town Monday after a load of posts for his neighbor, Charley Newman. The two gentlemen are fencing a large pasture on their ranges.

Parties having business with me in regard to school matters will call at my office in Harrison on every Saturday as that is my office day. J. B. BURKE, Co. Supt.

Charley Coffee, and his family came up from Chadron yesterday, and at present on their way out to their valley ranch where they will spend the summer until the school year commences again.

We understand Mr. Priddy of this town and Nels Rosenberg of Adelia, are on a deal as the former is anxious to sell his blacksmith shop, so as he can get out of town, and Nels is a first class blacksmith.

Rev. Father McNamara, of Chadron was the celebrant of the Mass, here on last Saturday and after reading the gospel for the day he delivered one of the best sermons, which it has been our happiness to listen to in this northwestern country. The Rev. gentlemen will be here again on the 29th of May.

Diamonds & Hearts; also Hans Von Smash will be played by the

CLOVER LEAF CLUB at Andrews Hall, Wednesday evening May 9th. Admission 10c, everybody are invited to come and enjoy the fun.

Dan Kline, our old Sioux county commissioner has just sold his patent right to his "tin calf," cow-milker which has been thoroughly tested and found to be perfect for $10,000.00, retaining a royalty of 10 per cent. Dan deserves it, he has maintained great patience and perseverance in bringing it to its present state of efficiency. Dan is now a resident of Poukepsie, N. Y.

MARRIED—On last Monday morning, at the Montrose Church, Rev. Father McNamara officiating: Mr. Henry Piek-inbrock and Miss Mary Winterscheid both of Montrose parish. The young people have a large circle of friends who unite in wishing them a God speed through life, and ye scribe wishes to be among the first to congratulate Henry and his bride.

F. W. Knott, of Gilchrist, returned from his trip to Central City, this state, last Thursday where he purchased eighty acres of land two or three miles from that place besides buying two resident lots adjoining college place at Central City, where he expects to move his family about August next. Mr. Knott's object is to be handy to a good school where his children can be properly educated. We regret to know Mr. Knott and family are going to leave us, as they are old and respected citizens of our county.

Lewis Sutton, a nephew of Lancy Sutton, and a brother of Mrs. Geo. Davis, of this place, while employed on the new branch of the B. & M. R. R. received a severe cut on the right side of his head from a wheel scraper. He was brought to Harrison, on last Saturday, and his immediate relatives notified, and since that time he has been under the ministring care of our local physician Dr. Phinney who thinks he will be able to go to the home of his sister, Mrs. Geo. Davis in the valley, in a few days. While Mr. Sutton's wound is painful, we are glad to state he will come out all right.

Last Saturday afternoon, as per call of the chairman and secretary of their central committee the republican county convention was called to order by chairman Bigelow, and after the usual routine of business the following delegates were elected to the state, Senatorial and representative conventions:

State—Franklin Foran, and M. J. O'Connell.

Senatorial—Will Davis and J. H. Bartell.

Representative—P. B. Bigelow and J. W. Reed. None of the delegates were instructed, thus they are at liberty to use their best judgement in the nomination of candidates at the various conventions.

McINTIRE & HARMON.

Miss Noble, of Lincoln, a niece, of Rev. Smith, of this place, arrived in Harrison last Thursday and on Saturday the Rev. Gentleman took her out to the Ridge where she is to teach one of the schools, there.

I have a few very nice Ladies Hats left, which I will sell at a discount.

LEWIS GEBELACH.

Rev. Father McNamara, pastor of this mission, has definitely decided to erect a chapel in Harrison this summer, and all his flock, or anyone who may feel so disposed to contribute their might will find a subscription list at this office or with M. J. O'Connell, M. J. Blawett and Chas. Beihle, you may sign your name and the amount you feel able to contribute, but the funds are to be given by the parties themselves to Father McNamara, in August. Who will head the list?

Over In Wyoming.

Mrs. Charles Hunt arrived from Iowa on last Saturday and began her school in the new school house on Monday.

Miss Noble arrived from University Place on last Sunday and began her school in the west school house the next day.

Charles McDermott, joined his family at Father Church's on last Sunday. He has been working in the mines in Idaho for the last three years.

J. J. Zumbrennen has taken advantage of the reservoir act and filed on a 60 acre tract west of Hile Churches.

The wound on Jessie Newland's wrist is healing nicely.

James and Albert Deuel started, via the pony express, for Casper, on last Thursday, they expect to work for a sheep outfit during the summer there.

Father Duell, and his seven stalwart sons, visited photographer Harmon, one day last week and had a picture of the group taken all on their saddle horses.

Say, Mr. Boggie man, Sioux county is quite a prolific country but when jack rabbits weigh 15 pounds dressed in Wyoming, we call them antelopes.

We are glad to note the success of Brown, Sizer & Co., in capturing so many wolves, but as we are not posted in the zoology would like ask if it didn't bother mama wolf to set the table for so many hungry mouths.

The man, Hudson Feather, who shot and seriously wounded a man by the name of Chrismash, near Waterloo, Neb. a short time ago was a banana grower.

While stopping in Wayne, Neb., ten years ago we had some acquaintances with Hud, and one day, in the confectionary store of Minor and Davies, saw him on a wager, devour 33 bananas at one fell swoop, at least it took him but 22 minutes to devour them. Perhaps Mr. O'Conner of Harrison, or Ed. Peiren of Adelia, remembers the incident.

ZERILL.

Montrose Clippings.

Rain seems to be the order of the day now.

J. Messing, started today for Columbia Neb., where he will make his future home. We are sorry to lose our neighbor.

Theo. Pickenbrock, will leave for Pine Ridge, tomorrow where he is working for Uncle Sam.

M. J. Gayhart, made a business trip to Ardmore, Monday.

John Debeno, will leave for Sidney, about Monday, to work on the railroad.

There will be a match game of ball, between Montrose and Ardmore nines on next Sunday.

Miss Tillie Christensen, left for Sylvan Lake, on last Monday.

Everybody should come down and see H. Koorath's sulky plow with home made lister attachment, and make farming easy.

Say boys: but we had a hot time at Big Jake Wasserburgers place last Wednesday night.

Andrew and Charley Wasserburger, each of them are up at long branch.

Mr. Dennis O'Connell, paid Mr. and Mrs. Gayhart a visit on Sunday.

Henry Piekbrook, and Miss Anna Winterscheidt were married at the Montrose church on last Monday, Father McNamara performing the ceremony, their many friends join us in heartily wishing them a happy and prosperous married life.
